THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI SUKH RAM): (a) The entire amount of rent, electricity and sweeping charges in respect of single-handed Post Offices, including those located in 'A', 'B' & 'C Cities is paid by the Department and no amount is paid by the incumbents.

(b)In view of (a) above, there is no discrimination while taking buildings on rent for accommodating post offices. The practice of accommodating office of sub-divisions in their residences was made in view of operative convenience and efficiency considering the nature of their work which involves extensive touring They are compensated with an allowance for keeping these offices in their residences. However, instructions have been issued to provide accommodation for Sub-Divisional Offices in Departmental buildings/departmentally rented buildings, wherever possible. Instructions have also been issued for providing accommodation for Sub Divisional Offices, wherever any construction of Departmental building is planned.

(c)Yes, Sir. Consolidated amount paid for accommodating the office in the residences is reviewed from time to time.

(d) In view of (c) above, this does not arise.

5367. SHRI NILOTPAL BASU : Will the Minister of COMMUNICATIONS be pleased to state:

(a) whether there are any provisions to pro-vide clearical assistance to Sub-Divisional Inspector/Assistant Superintendent in Posts and Telegraphs;

(b)if so, why it was withdrawn when the work was not reduced:

(c) whether there is any provision to provide compensation in lieu of excess work done by the Inspectors/Assistant Superintendents in Sub-Divisions; and

(d) what steps Government are taking to pro vide cleriacal assistance to these officers for excess work or to compensate them ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINITSRY OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI SUKH RAM): (a) No, Sir. The standards for the creation of the Sub Divisional Officers include all type of work. Tentative instructions were issued in February 1990 that clerical assistance may be provided if the offices of Inspectors/ Assistant Superintending are located in the post office from the staff available with the Post Office.

(b) The Instructions of February 1990 were withdrawn in October 1991 as there was no proper assessment of the clerical assistance required as no post office staff was sanctioned for the purpose of providing assistance for the Inspectors/Asstt. Supdts.

(c) No, Sir. There is no provision for compensation in lieu of any excess work.

(d) The work of Sub Divisional Inspectors is of sporadic nature. There is no proposal to compensate them for occasional excess work that they may have either by clerical assistance or by other means.

Inspection by Inspector of Past Offices
